A handsome and most elegant Country French 18th century walnut three drawer commode. The chest is raised by fine scrolled legs with carved hoof feet. Above the beautiful scallop shaped frieze are three drawers with a most decorative and unique shape and richly chased bronze foliate pulls and fine pierced keyhole escutcheons. Each side displays most decorative carved recessed panels. The top follows the contours of the chest and showcases the beautiful warm walnut grain and patina. All original hardware and patina throughout.
