An attractive country French 19th century Louis XIV st. Honey-colored oak center/dining table. The legs with a Corinthian capital-like carvings have baluster shapes decorated by acorn leaves ending by 'boule' shaped supports above the original brass casters. The legs are joined by an 'h' stretcher centered by a diamond shaped square section with a flower at each side. Above is the straight apron centered by an acanthus leaf carved reserve. The top has a beautiful wood grain with rounded corners and a subtle moulding
