A sensational Dutch 17th century Oil on Wood painting in the manner of Frans Francken. The painting depicts the scene of a feast with a young male and female enjoying a feast while musicians are playing music in the background. To the left of the table that are spectators who are turning their heads away from two guards killing a traitor seated at the table. In the background you have architectural buildings and additional figures. At the bottom center is a pet monkey chained to a ball.
