A magnificent and large scale English 18th century mahogany breakfront cabinet. This very impressive cabinet is raised on a solid plinth base that protrudes at the center, housing six drawers with brass knobs and keyhole escutcheons. On either sides are two flamed mahogany paneled doors that open to reveal an adjustable shelf. Each of the extraordinary four doors above, have fifteen individual hand blown original glass panes, within mahogany frames. All below a handsome molded top crown. With all original warm and rich patina throughout.
