A handsome English early 19th century Regency st. flamed mahogany sideboard. The sideboard is raised on a straight mottled base with a protruding center. Each door displays extremely high quality mahogany with wonderful warm flamed mottled and recessed panels. The center two doors are flanked by a pair of striking columns and are separated by an extremely decorative brass fillet. Each door opens to reveal two adjustable shelves. The mottled solid mahogany top exhibits a wonderful and warm grain throughout. All original hardware.
