A unique and extremely well executed set of four Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. polychrome and gilded plaster sconces. Each wonderfully decorative sconce has a bottom reeded seashell cabochon shape below an impressive and finely carved gilt plaster rams head. The patinated dark green wooden back plate is decorated with a gilt plaster border and tied ribbon, flanked by colorful fruit arrangements. The splendid fluted and reeded arm is decorated with acanthus leaf carvings and a lovely polychrome fruit arrangement above. Shown with a large candle, these sconces can also be electrified.
