A handsome and high quality French 18th century Louis XV period Ebony and Ormolu Bureau Plat desk. This wonderful desk is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine pierced wrap around Ormolu sabots and impressive and richly chased pierced foliate top mounts in an exceptional satin and burnished finish. At the arbalest frieze are three drawers with finely chased Ormolu handles and central keyhole escutcheon. The back is likewise decorated with faux drawers, and a leather top pull out at one side. At the top is a Gilt tooled leather fitted within an Ormolu gallery with foliate Ormolu mounts at each corner. All original gilt and warm patina throughout.
