A stunning French 18th century Louis XV Period kingwood, tulipwood, ormolu and marble commode. The chest is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine paw and foliate ormolu feet. The scalloped shaped frieze displays a central pierced foliate ormolu mount, below the four most decorative drawers. Each drawer displays richly chased foliate handles, framed within fine tulipwood borders and with pierced ormolu keyhole escutcheons. Above is the original mottled border marble top which follows the elegant contour of the chest.
