A charming and most decorative French 18th century Louis XV period patinated wood and Rouge de Verone marble console. The freestanding console is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine reeded hoof feet and lovely fillets which lead up to richly carved foliate reserves and extend along the scalloped shaped apron. The apron displays a beautiful patinated washed green central seashell flanked by charming foliate movements also repeated at each side. Above is the original thick Rouge de Verone marble top with a fine mottled border. All original rich patina throughout.
