A stunning and high quality French 19th century 1st Empire period ormolu and Baccarat crystal vase. The vase is raised by three handsome scrolled paw feet below a circular base with exquisitely chased palmettes. Encasing the exceptionally cut crystal vase with fluted patterns and cut diamond shapes, are three sensational pierced supports with richly chased foliate patterns, palmettes and majestic, highly detailed winged maidens in a satin and burnished finish. At the top are additional fine chasings of palmettes and etched patterns. All original gilt.
