An elegant French 19th century Charles X st. moucheté mahogany buffet.

The handsome buffet is raised on straight supports in the back and four richly carved paw feet at the front, below the straight frieze. Above are four paneled doors decorated with maple wood filet designs. The doors open to reveal a single central shelf and two adjustable shelves at each side. The three drawers are similarly decorated with maple wood designs and floral keyhole escutcheons. All below the impressive and original Verte Antique marble top. All original warm and rich patina throughout.
