A most handsome French 19th century Empire st. crouch mahogany, ormolu, and Coquillier de Bilbao marble center table. The circular table is raised by three elegant square tapered legs with impressive paw feet and adorned with striking richly chased pierced ormolu mounts of beautiful opened winged maidens "Aux Victoires". Each leg is connected by a superb stretcher with concave sides and a beautiful and very unique baluster shaped central pedestal support. Above each leg are exceptional stars flanking beautiful finely detailed maiden faces with pierced palmettes at each side set on a magnificent flamed mahogany background. Above is the original Coquillier de Bilbao marble top with a raised lip and superb double mottled border.
