A most impressive French mid 19th century Empire st. flamed mahogany, ormolu and marble console, with one drawer. The console is raised by a striking bottom tier which showcases the beautiful flamed mahogany grain and displays fine mottled bun feet with ormolu top caps. The architectural tapered column supports display richly chased ormolu top caps and plinths. At the straight frieze is one drawer which displays a lovely ormolu keyhole escutcheon. Above is the original rectangular Gris St. Anne marble top.
