A stunning and extremely elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. burl walnut, giltwood and mirrored bombée shaped dessert console. The console is raised by four topie shaped supports decorated by a beaded upper band.

Each of the three mirrored tiers above has an outer burl walnut band with unique designed borders. The bottom tier has a twisted ribbon, at the middle is an egg and dart design and the top is a berried laurel above an impressive central reserve. The tiers are supported by two front fluted columns and two half round columns, flanking the original mirrored back panel. Exquisitely designed and practical for serving and displaying purposes.
