A very handsome and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. tulipwood, kingwood and ebony drop front desk. The desk is raised by four square columns joined by a bottom tier and decorated with a pierced ormolu gallery. Above is an exquisite Japanese black lacquer drop front panel depicting a landscape with figures and decorated by an ormolu beaded border. Inside are six mahogany compartments above four draws finished with burgundy leather, gold tooling and original ormolu pulls. At the top is the original white Carrara marble display tier surrounded by a pierced ormolu gallery.
