A most elegant and richly carved French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and forest green mirror. The original mirror is framed within a finely detailed carved border with a lovely mottled and beaded design. Each corner displays a carved rosette with elegant acanthus leaves at the base and fine oak leaves above. The beautiful top crown is centered by charming richly detailed love birds perched on a quiver with arrows and the eternal flame. Berried laurel branches extend upwards amidst, scrolled rinceau movements and oak leaves set on a forest green background. All original gilt and patina throughout.
