A stunning French late 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and marble center table. Raised on tapered fluted legs with chandelles, acanthus leaves and rosette blocks above the topie feet, joined by a scrolled stretcher. Centered on the stretcher is an urn with Greek key handles and berried laurel swaging garlands, topped with a flame of prosperity design. The impressive pierced giltwood frieze has foliate carvings, a twisted ribbon border and large corner rosette blocks. All below the thick Brèche de Baixas marble top.
