An extremely rare French 19th Century Louis XVI st. green Porphyry and ormolu Tazza. The centerpiece is raised on a round white Carrara marble base with protruding blocks. The center column follows the contours of the base with a three-stepped block pedestal and lion-head design. Three winged ormolu cherubs stand facing outward to support the bowl accented with an inverted ormolu berry acorn finial above an ormolu central rosette. The green porphyry bowl is centered by a richly chased ormolu rosette. All original gilt.
