A very attractive French 19th century Louis XVI st., circa 1880, finely executed hand painted side table. Raised on cabriole legs with ormolu sabots joined by a kidney shaped tier with ormolu trim and central painted floral bouquet, with flame of prosperity, tied with a ribbon. Above are the reeded legs that continue to the panel designed apron, each topped by a richly chased ormolu mount. At the frieze is a drawer with centered ormolu keyhole escutcheons. The kidney shaped top depicts a richly painted scene of nobles in a lush garden with foliate and foliage within a pierced ormolu gallery.
