A handsome French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, tulipwood and ormolu center/dining table. The table is raised by fine square mottled feet below impressive square tapered legs. Each leg is adorned with most decorative richly chased ormolu mounts of acanthus leaves, pierced rosettes and striking foliate garlands framed within finely inlaid tulipwood fillets, also repeated at each side of the square leg. Above each leg are additional finely executed pierced rosettes framed within a bamboo-like border with a striking central ormolu mount with fine palmettes and rosette at the center of the straight apron with a mottled border. The mahogany top showcases the beautiful mahogany grain and displays most decorative concave corners and a fine wrap around ormolu gallery with a Coeur de Rai design at the border.
