A spectacular palatial scale French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. thirty-six arm ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The chandelier with four different levels of S and C scrolled arms are elegantly decorated by richly chased acanthus leaves and end with a godron shaped candlecup, with draped design all above a laurel decorated saucer. Each arm is handsomely decorated by numerous swaging garlands with various central Baccarat crystal prisms. The impressive and highly decorated central fut leads to a spiral designed column. At the impressive top crown are eight C scrolled acanthus leaf decorated arms adorned with crystal garlands and large kite and rounded kite shaped crystals. Extraordinary quality with exceptional proportions and original gilt.
