An elegant and extremely high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu three arm sconces, stamped GA. Each finely chased sconce is centered by a bottom ormolu acorn inverted finial leading up to large acanthus leaves in an etched and satin and burnished finish. Each of the three S scrolled arms display cross patterns along the reeded arms with smooth sides. The arms end with fluted bobeches and saucers with detailed foliate patterns. The backplate, topped with a quiver, is decorated with an elegant X tied pattern and a central rosette flanked by rings. All original gilt.
