A striking and most unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. ox blood porcelain, ormolu and patinated bronze vase signed Sèvres. The vase is raised by an ormolu mottled circular base with unique branch designed handles leading up to the fine branch top lip. At the center are impressive patinated bronze grape clusters flanked by detailed and most intricately etched and grape leaves displaying the fine details of branch designed handles, leading to additional decorative grape clusters at each side. All original gilt and patina thought.
