An elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. oxblood red glass and ormolu vases. Each vase is raised by a triangular shaped ormolu base with a top mottled Coeur de Rai designed border. Above are three 'C' scrolled supports decorated by acanthus leaves at the top, below acorns and ending with a flower on each side at the bottom. Draped ormolu chain join the supports, while surrounding a tapered central quiver with chased feathers at the top. The support holds the original tapered oxblood colored glass vase with a scalloped top design. Very decorative and in excellent condition.
