A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated two door cabinet/buffet. The cabinet is raised by a straight base with a mottled design and four designed columns that flank the doors. Each door displays a mottled design and four finely carved charming circular rosettes and patinated bronze keyhole escutcheons. The doors open to reveal one shelf, their original hardware and are separated by a central carved recessed panel. Above is the original wonderfully executed faux painted gray marble top. All original finish throughout.
