An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. porcelain and ormolu vase, attributed to Sèvres. The lovely vase is raised on a square ormolu base below the foliate designed ormolu socle pedestal support. The cobalt blue porcelain body is decorated with medallions of beautiful and richly colored floral bouquets within circular gilt borders. Ormolu foliate designed handles continue down each side topped by a charming cherub that is holding up scrolled acanthus leaves above. The handles are joined by an ormolu top border with beaded trim.
