A handsome French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany ebony and giltwood two door cabinet. The cabinet is raised by square tapered legs with square ormolu sabots. The straight frieze below the two doors is elegantly decorated by two crossed arrows in ebony with the tips in giltwood. The arrows are joined at the center with a decorative gilt rosette. The center and side panels have a rich grain and patina. The top shelf has a tulipwood center bordered by mahogany. All original hardware and interior shelf.
