A charming French 19th century Neo-Classical st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu clock. The clock is raised on ormolu topie feet below a solid finely cut Baccarat crystal base decorated with a pierced ormolu frieze. Above are four crystal columns with ormolu top capitals and bottom caps topped by crystal acorn finial. At the center is a lyre shaped design in front of the clocks finely chased ormolu pendulum. The enamel dial is encased within an ormolu border with an ormolu top crown of a spread eagle amidst acanthus leaves, foliate and scrolls. All original gilt.
