A most impressive French 19th century Neo-Classical st. giltwood, faux painted Lapis Lazuli and Vert Campan marble center table. The table is raised by handsome paw feet below elegant S scrolled legs. Each leg is decorated with fine acanthus leaves and connected by an X shaped stretcher with concave sides and a beautiful central urn. The frieze displays striking recessed faux painted Lapis Lazuli plaques centered by beautiful mirrored scrolled foliate patterns framed in a beaded band. Above each leg are fine floral rosettes while below the frieze are charming swaging berried laurel garlands. The original circular Vert Campan marble top displays a mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
