A very handsome French 19th century Neo-Classical st. mahogany side table. The table is raised on three C scrolled legs with carvings of a bird-like feature above and talon shaped feet decorated with large acanthus leaves. The legs are joined by a quarter veneered stretcher with concave sides. The moulded frieze above is decorated by three finely chased lion ormolu pulls and three mahogany capitols adorned with ormolu mounts of mirrored fish flanking a trident. Above lays the impressive Levanto Rouge marble with indented edge. All original rich and warm patina and gilt.
