A most charming French 19th century Louis XVI st. miniature oak chest and letter carrier, from the Normandy region. The miniature chest is raised by elegant supports with a scalloped design which extends along the frieze. At the center are two outer doors which open to facilitate the two central faux doors to slide left and right. Each are decorated with a charming pierced carriage wheel design. Above is an opening decorated with lovely balusters. The letter carrier is raised by fine topie feet with a similar scalloped design and pierced carriage wheels at the front. The three graduated compartments each display lovely carved floral accents with a pierced circular reserve above flanked by carved butterfly like designs.
