A spectacular French early 19th century Empire st. mahogany, ormolu and Vert de Patricia marble center table. The most impressive circular center table is raised by three stunning ormolu supports of beautiful crossed arm maidens dressed in wonderfully executed flowing period attire with their hair in braids. Each support is connected by a triangular shaped solid mahogany stretcher decorated with finely chased pierced rosettes at the facade and superb pierced palmettes at the center. Above each support are additional ormolu rosettes centering outstanding pierced palmette mounts with richly chased maiden masks. Above is the original thick Vert de Patricia marble top with a fine and most decorative raised rim at the border.
