A handsome French early 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mouchette mahogany, ormolu, and Giallo Provenza marble center table. The circular table is raised by its original casters below the three most impressive lightly tapered circular Mouchette mahogany column supports with richly chased ormolu top and bottom caps. Each support is connected by a striking stretcher with concave sides showcasing the beautiful wood grain. The apron displays a fine wrap around ormolu band while above is the original Giallo Provenza marble top with a unique and most decorative raised lip and slanted border.
