An exquisite and complete set of twelve French late 19th century Restauration st. stained beachwood dining chairs. Each chair is raised by elegant richly carved baluster shaped legs at the front with fine foliate designs and two square tapered lightly curved legs at the back. Each chair retains its beautiful original tufted brown leather seat and cushioned back support finished with brass nail heads and a lovely scrolled design at the top.

Also finished at the back.

Seat Height: 18.5"
