An exceptional French Louis XIV st. circa. 1840 Boulle cabinet vitrine in ebony, brass inlay and ormolu mounts. The two piece display cabinet has a rectangular base with two glass doors and glass paneled sides. The bottom is decorated with richly chased ormolu mounts. Above the base is the hutch with one large door with a curved center following the contours of the bonnet. Throughout is an incredible design of inlaid brass of scrolls, masks, birds and butterflies. The interior has lighting with the original rosewood veneer and adjustable shelves.
