A most impressive and nicely scaled pair of French Louis XVI st. ormolu festive figural statues, signed Devaulx. On the left she is leaning on a tree stump, draped in a flowing garment with a tambourine in one hand and a cluster of grapes in the other. The male on the right is also leaning on a tree stump in similar dress. He holds a stick with a cluster of grapes in one hand and a dish of ripe fruits in the other. Each raised on a ebonized fruitwood base. Richly chased with exceptional gilding throughout.
