An elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and white Carrara marble Rafrâichissoir drink stand. The Rafrâichissoir is raised by fine circular tapered legs with fitted ormolu sabots. Above each leg are decorative block reserves cornering a bottom shelf with raised edges. Above the four elegant baluster shaped supports are beautiful fluted designs. The straight frieze displays most decorative recessed panels showcasing the beautiful mahogany grain, each framed within a mottled ormolu band and with one small drawer with a hoop pull at the front. Above is the original fitted white Carrara marble top retaining its original fitted pewter bottle holders with a wrap around fluted ormolu gallery at the border. All original gilt throughout.
