A striking and elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. sixteen light ormolu and Baccarat chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a smooth solid crystal sphere at the bottom, surrounded by cut crystal pendants hanging from each of the twelve S scrolled arms. Each of the arms, over two tiers, are connected by crystal garlands and display elegant crystal saucers above kite shaped cut dark and light smoky crystal pendants. Every second arm at the upper tier, also has lovely prism cut hanging crystals encasing additional lighting. The exquisite Baccarat crystal central fut is amidst crystal garlands that join to the superb top crown of ormolu sprays ending with unique cut crystal sphere pendants. All original Baccarat crystals and gilt throughout.
