A handsome and high quality French mid 19th century Renaissance st. ormolu clock. The clock is elegantly raised by scrolled supports with large acanthus leaves. The base has a central crest with 'C' scrolled foliate below the central support of the clock with a lions head. The original enameled dial with both numeric and roman numerals is flanked by female winged maidens wearing armor. The maidens are decorated by swaging berried laurel garlands. At the top is a central decorated urn with the eternal flame. All original gilding and movement. Richly chased throughout.
