A large and very unique Italian 18th century Baroque giltwood and polychrome mirror from Florence. The original mirror plate is set within a foliate border with burnished accents and a striking mottled frame. Below is a beautiful and detailed giltwood maiden's face with a lattice polychrome background centered by two scrolled bottom supports. The impressive and statement making top crown displays a face with foliate designs below a beautiful woven flower basket centered by exception large architecture scrolled elements at each side with fine lattice patterns and mottled designs. All original gilt and polychrome finish.
