A superb and most impressive Italian mid 18th century Walnut, Ebony, bone, and bronze commode from the Lombardi region. The three drawer chest is raised by unique scallop shaped supports below the elegant mottled frieze which follows the most decorative concaved cut shape of the front. Each of the drawers displays graceful personages laying at the center amidst stunning masterfully executed inlaid floral designs, bronze pulls and keyhole escutcheons all framed within a fine mottled ebony border. The sides display a charming and finely detailed inlaid bird amidst flowers framed within a beautiful scalloped border. Above is the spectacular top decorated with wonderful scrolled floral designs and a hunter in a cloak with a bow, arrows, fox, dog, and deer.
