An exceptional pair of Italian 18th century Louis XV period two arm giltwood mirrored sconces. Each sconce is centered by a beautiful foliate reserve with fine scrolled movements leading out to striking acanthus leaves. Each C scrolled arm displays a fine turned giltwood candle cup. The original mirrored back plate is framed within a beaded border and superb swaging garlands. Above, the pierced top crown displays a beautiful central flower and fine foliate and scrolled movements. All original gilt throughout.
