An elegant Italian 18th century Louis XVI period patinated and giltwood console. The wall mounted console is raised by two circular tapered fluted legs with beautiful topie shaped foliate feet and fine block reserves with three charming fitted rosettes below impressive richly carved acanthus leaf capitals. Above each leg are handsome block reserves flanking the straight apron centered by a striking finely detailed family crest framed within an elegant mottled giltwood band. Above is the original wonderfully executed faux painted marble top. All original gilt and patina throughout. Also available with matching corner consoles item # 6290, sold separately.
