A sensational pair of Italian 18th century Louis XVI period walnut and burl walnut chests from Bologna. Each two drawer chest is raised by fine square tapered legs with a decorative carved fillet and topie shaped feet. Each drawer displays a fabulous burl walnut panel framed within a walnut border and opens to reveal their original hardware. At the top and to each side is a striking central inlaid pine and ebonized fruitwood star in a most decorative border on a burl walnut background. All original warm patina throughout.
