A striking and most decorative Italian 18th century Neo-Classical st. walnut, burl walnut, mahogany and ormolu center table. The circular table is raised by four beautiful circular column supports with fine ormolu top and bottom caps and charming mottled bun feet. Each support is connected by an impressive stretcher with elegant concave sides and a superb quarter veneered design showcasing the fine warm wood grain. The circular top displays a superb central Rose des Vents like reserve set on a beautiful burl walnut background and set within a striking sunburst veneered design with a most decorative burl walnut border.
