An elegant and high quality Italian 18th century, circa 1730, Tuscan giltwood mirror. The rectangular mirror with its scrolled wave design border and original mirror plates displays scrolls and flowers on each side above its pedestal supports. An impressive central reserve is ornate and richly carved with two tiered urns amongst acanthus leaf scrolls and flowers. The topmost urn with its acanthus leaf finial and trailing floral garlands joins floral baskets flanking the upper corners and garlands decorates each side. All original gilt.
