A spectacular and extremely unique true pair of Italian mid 18th century Venetian gilt metal, patinated and giltwood sconces. Each sensational and palatially scaled sconce is centered by a beautiful hexagonal giltwood lantern with fine inverted foliate carved finials and most decorative frosted glass panes, framed within charming scrolled movements. The lantern hangs on its original chain below a stunning metal scroll with a wonderfully executed floral reserve. The flower displays a captivating vivid blue and rich red center amidst extremely decorative gilt metal leaves. The fluted foliate central support leads down to a most impressive body with an outstanding design of interlocking gilt metal leaves with magnificent scrolled flowers and fine wheat sprigs branching out. Superb proportions and a true statement-making pair. All original rich gilt and patina throughout.
