A striking and most decorative Italian 18th century Baroque period Walnut, Ebonized Fruitwood, giltwood, and bone side table. The one door, one drawer side table is raised by elegant lightly curved square tapered legs leading up to impressive ebonized fruitwood columns with giltwood plinths and capitals centering the door. The door displays a bronze pull and is richly decorated with stunning intricately detailed inlaid foliate designs centering a bearded man with a sword holding his cloak up shielding his face. The drawer displays similar beautiful foliate inlaid designs with an impressive bone central mask and also displays a fine bronze pull. Each side displays a charming intricately detailed bird perched on additional lovely foliate inlaid designs while the top is centered by a superb bone inlaid cherub. Wonderful detail throughout.
