A remarkable Italian 19th century ebony, ormolu and exotic wood chest. The three drawer chest is raised by elegant ormolu triangular shaped feet with a lovely foliate design. Above a fine mottled band are two drawers "sans traverse" (without crossbar) showcasing the cabinet makers high level of skill. Stunning masterfully inlaid foliate marquetry extends across each drawer. Beautiful abundant flowers and foliate designs center the impressive urn inlaid with charmwood, tulipwood and other exotic woods. A charming and finely detailed bird is perched at each side, all framed within a fine tulipwood fillet with rich scrolled acanthus leaves at each corner. The top drawer displays additional exquisite inlays with beautiful flowers, swaging garlands and lovely rinceaux shaped scrolled movements. Each side displays a fine inlaid central urn framed within a tulipwood fillet. The top is centered by additional most decorative marquetry framed within geometric designed tulipwood bands and lovely scrolled flowers.
