A magnificent Italian 19th century giltwood and crystal chandelier from Tuscany. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by a charming bottom finial with a unique carved reeded pattern and centered by cut crystals. Each whimsical scrolled arm is decorated with acanthus leaf carved mounts, oblong triangular prism cut crystal pendants, and wonderful pierced carved candle cups. Each of the pierced tiers have the same design that encase the charming giltwood finial, with a pierced pattern and the same carved reeded pattern below. The central row of cut crystals are impressively etched with charming patterns.
